SENATORS ARE FEW

Congress is Slowly Going to Pieces.

SUPPLEMENTAL BILLS REPORTED FAVORABLY.

GENERAL BELIEF THAT TARIFF DEBATES HAVE ENDED.

Members of the House Committee or Commerce Have Not Yet Abandoned the Project of Holding ar Investigation of the Recent Railroad Strikes For Which a Reso-Intion is Now Before Them-Gen eral News of the Capital.

motion, thus showing that congress is slowly disintegrating.

The four supplemental tariff bills were all reported from the finance committee and sent to the calendar. Several bilis were passed, among them the bill for the speedy prosecution of the claims of the United States against the Stanford estate.

At 1:40 p. m. the Senate adjourned ntil Wednesday, after an executive ession lasting twenty minutes.

Washington, Aug. 20,-Mr. Harris reported the amended sugar bill and coal, iron and barbed wire bills in the Senate today.

Allison said the action of the Senate last Saturday on Manderson's amendment, when the vote was 21 to 20, and the amendment only falled for the lack of a quorum, should be regarded as an instruction to the committee to report the amendment favoreshly.

Mr. Allison stated that the barbed wire bill does not provide for free barbed wire at all, as it places a duty upon the manufactured article, while admitting the material free. He reminded the Senate that the Wilson bill provided for a 25 per cent at valorem.

Washington, Aug. 20,-Members of sor have not abandoned the project of holding an investigation of the recent railroad strikes for which a resolution is before the committee. The appointment of a commission by President Cleveland to conduct a similar investigation was thought to have forestalled action by the committee, and for a time the idea of a cougressional investigation was dropped. It is thought by members that the inquiry by the commission, now in progress, is intended principally to secure information upon the questions of capital and labor involved and their solution. Supporters of the resolution before the committee desire a report regarding the effect of the radiroad strike upon commerce between the states. Two or three members favor laws which would control radiroad employees, so uld control railroad employees, so would control railroad employees, so that general strikes to paralyze commerce could not be inaugurated without due notice. They regard the railroads, in a measure, as public highways which should be under public control. An effort will be made to have a committee menting called this week to report to the House a resolution for an investigation during the recess.

Sir Julian Sees Gresham.

Washington, Aug. 20.-Sir Julian upanied by Charles Tupper, the Can adian minister of fisheries, called at the state department, and had an inter view with Secretary Gresham regard-ing the claims of the owners of the British Columbian vessels seized by the United States pavy and marine vessels for sealing in Bering sca.

The claims will probably be adjusted by a commission and Mr. Tupper's visit to Washington is to afford th British ambassador the information ness of importance transacted at this session, except, perhaps, the passage of the bill correcting the alcohol schedule. Today, Senator Lindsay was ready to make a speech defending the action of the Senate finance committee and the Democratic senators who supported them.

It is also understood that Senator Allison was also ready to make a speech of some length on the present status of tariff legislation. It is possible that both or these speeches will be made by the courtesy of the Senate, although the Republicans said today that no speeches would be made.

Republicans said today that no speeches would be made.
Some of the Democrats assert, however, that if any attempt is made to prevent the speeches on the Democratic side, a quorum will be recalled under duress by the sergeant-at-arms.
On the Republican side it is claimed the tariff debate as well as the tariff legislation is at a close.

son, of the ways and means committee, has returned to the city from Long Branch. His early return was connected with rumors that President once and that some action on the tariff bill was to be expected. Mr. Wilson clocks for the president's return on Thursday. Finding so many senators away from the city, he does not lock for any further legislation this seasion.

The district attorney stated that he had made this motion for the reason that the evidence in the case had been received by the grand jury who had failed to find true bills against any one of the defendants.

The members were crowding the area in front of the were crowding the area in front of the speaker's 'desk with requests for mani-mous consent for the passage of bills. Mr. Sayrez, chairman of the appropri-ation committee, secured unanimous con-sent for the consideration of a bill ap-propriating $8,600 for an auditional force for the collection of internal revenue and $5,600 for carrying into effect the arbitra-tions between the United States and Venezuela. It was passed without ob-jection.

At 12:45 the House adjourned.

Only Waiting For the Bill.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Speaker Crisp returned today from old Point Comfort, Va. He says adjournment could be had by Wednesday, if the president should act on the tariff tomorrow. The only legislative matter pending on which action is hoped for, is the Alcohol bill now before the Senate, but it appears to be affected by the Murphy resolution postpoing all tariff legislation.

Members of the ways and means committee say they do not think the president will let the tariff bill become law until the last moment, in order that the openation possible. This would not be until midnight Monday next.

Representative Tarsney will make not effort to push his free silver and lead ore bill beyond getting it on the House calendar. He reported it from the committee today.

Mr. Aldrich, another Republican member of the finance committee, denied that the substitute bill jurt passed was by the unanimous vote of $\frac{1}{2}$ ccommittee, as it had been opposed by all the Republican members. The House had desired to put barbed ware on the free list to benefit the farmer, but in its haste it had done just the opposite.

The House bill to provide a national home for aged and infirm colored people went over until the next session. Mitchell Gregorin gave notice that it the sugar bill was called up this session he would offer an amendment, renacting the schedule of 1890. Bills placing wool, coal and iron on the free list were ordered placed on the calendar.

The Senate bill to pust the claim of the United States against the estate of Leland Stanford was passed.

The Senate went into excrutive session, but owing is the lack of a quorum it adjourned until Wednesday.

New York, Aug. 20,-The sloop riggs racht Bessie G., was found floating keel up in the lower bay yesterilay and unless the crew were rescued by an outward bound vessel, it is almost certain four borsons have lost their lives. "The brotherhoods have outlived their usefulness," he said, "and for that reason I left the firemen's organizations. They were, I fear, jealous of the A. R. U and belped to defeat us. There is now a movement on foot to form a united and grand railroad organization. Within a few days a propform a united and grand railroad or-ganization. Within a few days a prop-osition will be submitted to the other railroad organizations, whereby the officials of the A. R. U. and other unions shall resign with no possibility of election to office. The principal cause of strife then being relieved, an organ-ization will be effected, if the brother-hoods will consent, which shall include all railroad employees."

"What is your opinion as to meth ods of preventing strikes?" asked Commissioner Worthington of Debs, "My own idea, and it is the idea of the A. R. U., is to unify all the rallway men of the country. A power like that, prudently managed would avoid strikes. The railway managers would recognize the wisdom of treating it fairly and meeting it in a conciliatory

Washington, Aug. 20 .- With the close of Congress, the managers of the congressional national campaign commitces are preparing for the fall cam-

Senator Faulkner, at the head of the Democratic committee, is directing his efforts towards holding a Democratio majority in the House of Representaives. Extensive headquarters are in operation, with the executive work in charge of Secretary Lawrence Gardner. The work, thus far, has been in presaring full statistics of districts, writng the campaign book, and in circuating documents. The campaign book is about half completed. It will be a volume of about 300 pages, showing the work of Congress and the reforms nade in the departmental service. It will be furnished to speakers as a text will be furnished to speakers as a text for their work on the stump.

The statistics gathered are the most elaborate ever undertaken by the committee. They show not only the votes by counties for the last four congressional elections, but in close districts the figures are carried out to townships, wards, and even precincis. In addition to the numerical vote, a system of percentages has been adopted by which the percentage of gain necessary to success or loss threatening defeat, can be exactly determined.

Another plan of rendy reference is shaded maps of the districts in various colors, which show the strength of the Republicans, Democrats, Populists, Prohibitionists, etc., with the figures as to the vote of each party.

Campaign speakers will not be sent out by the committee, as each congressional nominee will be left to secure his own speakers. If, however, a weak spot is developed, where speakers are few, the national committee will undertake to supply the orators. Documents are being shipped in large quantities, but the main supply, particularly on the tariff, will not go out until Congress has adjourned and all uncertainty on the question has been removed.

greater diligence from this time forward. The committee furnishes matter for a page each week to several plate printing and press associations, which is said to be in demand by all newspapers about the country.

A complete canvass has been made of every congressional district in the country, and the work to be done mapped out and systematized. In states where a campaign is on, the work will be left in the hands of the state committee entirely. Where there is no state campaign, the congressional district organization will be co-operated with directly.
